The Burlington Free Press.

BY H. B. STACY.

BURLINGTON, VERMONT, FRIDAY, JULY 3, 1846.

VOL. XX ...... No. 4.

operation, is thus : If the summer shoots are his wife, was found entire in 1502, in the Ab-land." shortened earlier, the inside buds will all by Church of the Holy Trinity, in the same | Count Grabouski was a young Polebreak from the excessive inflax of san; if city. with the best management, some of the side over head and ears in peat moss.

WATER FOR SHEEP.—Water is not deemed so absolutely necessary for sheep as for other domestic animals, since their instruct leads them to graze early in the morning, when the dew is on, and again for awhile in the evening, when the temperature of the season is warmest. In the month of August, tender, juicy mutton can be produced for events that had occurred around us. half the cost of the same quantity of far park; that it is infinitely healthier food, especially red coat officers," said the countryman. in the summer season; is more agreeable to the nalate, when one gets accustomed to it : and those who eat it, become more muscular, themselves, than those who eat for perk.—

tell me he was a Polisher.'
We know nothing more delicious than smotell me he was a Polisher.'
Pole! Ah, yes I recollect now.
This,
Fritz-Frederick, you call him-I hear dat
how he put in! i wish every federalist and sheep; venison itself is not superior. - Am.

sembled. What decame of the body of the earl is not known; but the bodies of Lady Kilsyth and her infinit were embowelled and embalmed, and soon afterwards sent over to Scotland. They were landed, and lay at Leith for some time in a cellar, whence they made that the next move would be to penewere afterwards carried to Kylsyth, and but trate through the New England States, to the series of the two forts and stopped to take a soldier's dinner before commencing the assault. The English soldiers, Napoleon under the command of Sir Henry Clinton; the same time in a cellar, whence they made to say, fight best on full stomachs, while a specific to the two forts, and stopped to take a soldier's dinner before commencing the assault. The English soldiers, Napoleon under the country's safe while this the road of St. (as yellow to say, fight best on full stomachs, while a series to their eyes out, i could. 'Hoo-roar!' be shouted the kurnel, when the ludy sot down. Hoo-roar for the winen of Ameriky! real to take a soldier's dinner before commencing the assault. The English soldiers, Napoleon under the country's safe while this the road of St. (as yellow to say, fight best on full stomachs, while a series to their eyes out, i could. 'Hoo-roar!' be shouted the kurnel, when the ludy sot down. Hoo-roar for the winen of Ameriky! real to take a soldier's dinner before commencing the assault. The English soldiers, Napoleon the terror" into the Americans, it was expected that at Albany, (of course he was to get there!) be shouted the kurnel, when the ludy shouted th

In the spring of 1796, some rude, regard- as to being carried out. less young men, having paid a visit to this change, and had they not been sullied with dost and drops of grease from the candles the Hudson to his aid he was fearful that even come up with the tide, commenced firing from the candles. The held over them, they might have remained as his retreat would be a dangerous one.

Sir Henry, early in October, embarked

Come up win the signal for assault. The entire as ever. Many months after the bodsome regular concerns, i ten you. I have been some as at first; and though pressed with the finger, they did not yield much to the touch, but seemed to retain the elasticity of the human body. Even the shroud, though torn by the hands of the regardless multiude, is still strong and free from rot.—

Every feature and every limb was as full, nay, the very shroud was as clear and fresh, and the colors of the ribbons as bright as they are find a story force of the colors of the ribbons as bright as they are find and the colors of the ribbons as bright as they are find and the colors of the ribbons as bright as they are find and the colors of the ribbons as bright as they are find and the colors of the ribbons as bright as they are find and they were reveived three thousand men on board a fleet of transed with a terrible fire of grape shot and muster where and they were reveived three thousand men on board a fleet of transed with a terrible fire of grape shot and muster where a terrible fire of grape shot and muster where a terrible fire of grape shot and muster where and they were reveived with a terrible fire of grape shot and muster where thousand men on board a fleet of transed with a terrible fire of grape shot and muster where which was so effective, particularly from modore Hotham, and proceeded up the North landed from the ships a little below the fort, was now brought up, and, under the cover of the fire field articlery, which had been landed from the ships a little below the fort, was now brought up, and, under the cover of the fire field articlery, which had been landed from the ships a little below the fort, was now effective, particularly from field articlery, which had been landed from the ships a little below the fort, was now effective, particularly from field articlery, which had been landed from the ships a little below the fort, was now effective, particularly from field articlery, which had been landed from the ships a little below the fort, was now effective, particularly from field articlery, w

the organization of short lateral branches, tion of bodies might be mentioned, still more to cross the creek and attack Fort Montgomwhich finally become short fruit-bearing remarkable, though perhaps less interesting, ery; and the other, under the command of which some soft headed fellows imagine to be spurs. In this way, we have seen dwarf than the preceding, The tomb of Edward Lieut. Col. Campbell, was to attack Fort trees covered with bearing wood down to the First, who died on the 7th of July, 1307, Clinton. Toiling up the Dunderburgh mountained by Captain Kidd, and are now endeaded in the remains of a ship once sailed by Captain Kidd, and are now endeaded in the remains of a ship once sailed by Captain Kidd, and are now endeaded in the remains of a ship once sailed by Captain trees covered with bearing wood down to the was opened on the 2d of January, 1770, and tains is not a very easy matter, and the Bri-If observed from the beginning, this pract after a lapse of 463 years the body was found tish officers, in many instances, had to distice renders a dwarf tree a most prolific ob- not decayed; the flesh on the face was a lit- mount and make their way on foot-among ject. If neglected at first, it may at any the wasted, but not putrid. The body of the rest, Sir Henry himself, who was rather time afterwards be put into force, with this Canute the Dane, who got possession of Engdifference in the result, that it takes a much land in 1017, was found very fresh in the fond of walking. longer time to bring into hearing a tree ren- year 1766, by the workmen repairing Win- Rather fatiguing business this, Grabousdered barren by a long mismanagement, chester Cathedral. In the year 1522, the ki, worse than your Polish mountains with than to secure abundance from a tree well body of William the Conqueror was found such hard names."

buds will break; but they will be near the In a manuscript by one Abraham Grey, ship in which he embarked at Nantes was end of the branches, and will be removed who lived about the middle of the sixteenth captured by a British ship of war, and the century, now in the possession of his repre- Count was carried into New York. We have said that in winter pruning, the sentative, Mr Goodbehere Grey, of Old his acquaintance with the British officers shouts are to be cut back to the extent of Mills, Near Abordeen, it is stated that, in made him a great favorite, and being young, half o two-thirds of their length. It is hard- 1569, three Roman soldiers, in the dress of he was persuaded to join the British service; ly necessary to explain that it is only the their country, fully equipped with warlike in- for he was told that the rebellion was nearly weaker smoots that require to be shortened by two-thirds, and that the strongest are to extent, called Kazy Moss. When found, af- to the King's allegiance—and be entered inbe left with half their length.— American ter a lapse of probable fifteen hundred years, to Sir Henry Clinton's staff as a volunteer

THE FORGOTTEN GRAVE.

STORMING OF FORT MONTGOMERY.

A summer or two ago, I was on a visit in when the feed is less succulent, they appear Orange county for a few days, and improved the commander of Fort Montgomery had eager for water, & should be gratified with it my limited time in strolling over the ground sent out under the charge of a body of artillwill do better if the mothers have access One fine afternoon, near the close of the day, by, for the advance troops had reached the to it at all times. Therefore, since every I stood by the ruins of Fort Montgomery, Orangetown road. Half-a-dozen men fell. pasture is not supplied with water, those thinking of that bloody assault made by Sir that do contain it should be appropriated to Henry Clinton, in 1777, when the fort was vancing column. the breed ewes. It should be considered stormed and the garrison put to the sword seems to have been heaped up for some spe-billets, I fear for some of us before night. MUTTON .- We mean to repeat a thousand cial purpose-for what I knew not. A countimes, er at least till what we say has some tryman came along and saluted me, and we cers mounted at once. The six pounder

"You are sitting on the grave of one of the

I started involuntarily. Whose grave ?

'Wal, that mought be his name. I never heard it afore, as I recollects.

And was it for this thought I that the young wards the fort. EXTRAORDINARY PRESERVATION OF Polish nobleman sought feme and renown! HUMAN BODIES.

To heave his native land and enter into the second in command, you will push for fort Clin. der the high kanopy of heving! (cheers.)—
There is an arched want, or burying fight against those who had never injured him ton at once. The route is clear. I shall file off Did'nt we lick the all fired Bottish twice, an ground, under the church of Kilsyth, in Scotland, which was the burying place of the family of Kilsyth, until the estate was furfeited, and the title day knew not even his great for that 1815; since which it has never been year 1815; since which their faithers year 1815; since which it has never been year 1815; since which their faithers year 1

sembled. What became of the body of the terror" into the Americans, it was expected place both forts in the best possible condition to were afterwards carried to Kylsyth, and bu- trate through the New England States, to Frenchman grows desperate as he grows hun-ancient cemetry, tore open the coffin of Lady Kilsyth and her infant. With astonishment and consternation they saw the bodies as perfect as at the hour when they were entambed. For some weeks this circumstance. tombed. For some weeks this circumstance doubtful if he should be allowed to retreat in as well to state that these forts were built more was kept secret; but at last it began to be quiet, to say nothing of advancing. He des- for the defence on the river side, it never have whispered in several companies, and soon patched a messenger to New York, who ing been expected that an attack would be made excited great and general cariosity. For the defence on the river side, it never have the defence on the river side, it never have the struggling my escape, Dr Conneau, always frequently employed for washing silver bin; the'd got steam tarrly on, and didn't seem to know how to shut it off. excited great and general curiosity. For managed to get through the country without being suspected, with verbal instructions to when the British columns had advanced in the several weeks they underwent no visible being suspected, with verbal instructions to whether the British columns had advanced in the several weeks they underwent no visible being suspected, with verbal instructions to

THE FARM

A NEW HINT TO THE ORCHARD
15 TS.

We cap'y a part of an article from the Garbers of Composition of the color and the special personal per as when first buried, in the Abby Church of Yaas, your excellenza-very bad moun-The reason why August is chosen for the Stephen, at Caen; and the body of Matilda, tains this; but we have more higher in Povolunteer aid to Sir Henry Clinton in this performed later there will not be a sufficient No device of art, however, for the preser- expedition. I have heard, but known nothpropolision of sup into them to effect the de- vation of the remains of the dead, appears ing of its truth, that he was on his way to this sired object. It will frequently happen that equal to the simple process of plunging them country in a French vessel, to offer his services, like Pulaski, to our country, when the they "were quite fresh and plump !"-Bas- aid. Poor fellow! his dream of nerv was soon end of. You may have higher mountains in Poland, Grabouski, but d-n me if, from pole to pole, you have any harder ones to travel!"

-and Sir Henry laughed our ight at his own

Poland, but-Ah, what is dat ?"

that the milk secretions cannot be so about at least such portions as were unable to es. Sir Henry, as he looked around. Horses dant, if the ewe suffers from thirst,-Mor- cape in the darkness of the night. I had here! Mount gentlemen, mount!-we are seated myself on a small pile of stones that coming now to hard knocks. Bullets will be

The horses were led forward, and the ofieffect upon our country, that a pound of lean, entered into conversation relating to the blazed away with much effect, as the British troops advanced up the pass with fixed bay-

Walt, I can't say exactly. He wasn't a quarry is blasted. and can do more work with greater case to Britisher, but a former for all that. They ca'l him-bust, broken, good for nossin. In He'd no sooner sot down, than up jumps sound before." The Pole was right. The cannon did burst, and the artillerymen retreated precipitately to- it.

used for that purpose, except once. The last earl flow as in the liberties for which their fathers buttled. Poor Grabouski! If you had fallen like your countryman, Pulaski, on the other searching the liberties for which their fathers buttled. Poor Grabouski! If you had fallen like your countryman, Pulaski, on the other searching the liberties for which their fathers buttled. Poor Grabouski! If you had fallen like your countryman, Pulaski, on the other searching the liberties for which their fathers buttled. Poor Grabouski! If you had fallen like your countryman, Pulaski, on the other searching the propose, except once. The last last purpose, except once. The last last purpose, except once. The last last purpose, except once against the liberties for which their fathers buttled. Poor Grabouski! If you had fallen like your countryman, Pulaski, on the other save Campbell alive.

In the mean time Gov. Chino and his broth. In the mean time Gov. Chino and his broth. In the mean time Gov. Chino and his broth. In the mean time Gov. Chino and his broth. In the mean time Gov. Chino and his broth. In the mean time Gov. Chino and his broth. In the mean time Gov. Chino and his broth. In the mean time Gov. Chino and his broth. In the mean time Gov. Chino and his broth. In the mean time Gov. Chino and his broth. In the gallery railin, who are the served in the gallery railin, who are the gallery railin, who are the served in the gallery railin, who ried in great pump in the vault above men-tioned.

Boston. The plan was certainly a good one, but it was really among the 'impossibilities'

Taking a meal before going into battle is cer-

THE WAR SPIRIT

By the following letter from a valued corespondent in Maine, it will be seen that the patriotism and alacrity of that valiant State are not a whit behind those called forth by Gov. Shunk and the Philadelphia meeting in Pennsylvania. We hope our corresponden will keep us advised of the proceedings in the East.

HORNBY, OXFORD Co., MAINE, Mar 18, 1846.

father said I'd better Wright to you.

and beans, and when he come back he set us fort. battle of forty-four minits and 49 seconds, editor of the Journal de la Somme : annung.

Ah I your excellenza is very funny about he come, full chissel, swearing he'd never "You know that the fort was guarded by shethe it agin till he'd squinched it in the 400 men, who furnished daily 60 soldiers, icum. An off he started down the rode-his over, the principal gate of the prison was if possible. But the lambs, when sucking, made glorious in our Revolutionary annuls, erymen, as before related, came whistling dren hangin back at his cont-tails; but twas constantly on duty. It was necessary that wife tryin to hed him off, and two of hischil- guarded by the goalers, two of whom were no use, they could'nt stop the leftenant. He I should clude their vigilance afterwards traswore he cared nothin for his wife or chil- verse the inside court, before the windows of harry stood in the way. An so givin a great which was guarded by soldiers. flourish with his sword-which so skeered not like that of a cannon when fired, but a a minit the deacon got up and said the obsound similar to the heavy booming when a ject of the meetin was to consider the news from portland; that the mentin was now open other inenemies of the country could beern

'Feller citizens,' says he, this here is a *Now, Col. Cambell,' said Sir Henry to his great country, an can lick secret country un- bottom of the stairs I found myself in front grit still,—same 'twas in the Povolutory war. Feller citizens, the country's safe while this the road of St. Quentin. Charles, who the here spirit of 76, as weve just witnessed, day before had engaged a carriage, shortly burns in the busums of the fair sects'—but overtook me, and we arrived at St. Quentin. the kurnel couldn't go on ; his compliment to Taking a meal before going into partie is certainly a cool piece of business, but yet the act is reasonable. If a man has got to die for glory. In September, 1777, Burgoyne found Gates in the way barring further progress; and things began to look so had in the vicin.

Taking a meal before going into partie is certainly a cool piece of business, but yet the act is reasonable. If a man has got to die for glory, be man has got to die for glory. In September, 1777, Burgoyne found dozen of em got up at once an give us so much of the best lake, be made the may as well die full. Between two and the may as well die full. Between two and the may as well die full. Between two and the may as well die full. Between two and the may as well die full. Between two and the may as well die full. Between two and the may as well die full be shot an biled to the place of tumeric. A lovely young damsel laid hold of transparent blue varnish may also be made the skirts of his coat—and the cry of don't, that i'll be shot an biled to the realway. I had procured a Bel-Order, Order, till he was hourse as a bull show it.

i told you when i begon that i rit for infor-nation. The question i want to ask is this; mation. Is them Mexicums injuns, niggers or Jar. delphia. mans? Cos father says they is, and i say they isn't.

Yours for the country, 'rite or wrong.'
ETHAN SPIKE. P. S. When you see the government, tell it to depend upon Hornby, if wast comes to wust, and that we hate the British was than

ESCAPE OF LOUIS NAPOLEON. A letter from Ham, of the 29th ult. states York. that at six o'clock A. M., on the 28th, Dr. Conneau, who aided in the escape of Prince MISTER RITE—SUR: Father's bin over to Louis Napoleon, the two keepers, and a la-Paris Hill to see aunt Beisey, and says how borer had been removed to Peronne. At he seen one of your papers, and thought by Athies, they were hand-cuffed and conducted the reading that was in it, that you knowd to Peronne by gendarmes. The greatest rig- talking to you. Don't you hear him? eenjest everything. And so as we all wanted to know somethin-most pertickerier—the fort, M. Demarle. He was kept under close arrest in the prison, his sword had been him. Wal you see, uncle Jusiah went down to taken from him, and an officer of gendarme-Portland last week with load of hoop-poles rie succeeded him in the command of the all in a muss by the news he fecht. He says | Prince Louis Napoleon, on arriving in an shot Mr Polk right through and through. "My dear M. Degeorge,-My desire to An it was thought every day they would come see my father once more in this world made over into Vermont to tall giveral C ss an me attempt the boldest enterprise I ever to Wash Because New York has not proportionally be wearned by which the state of the state eart's blood of some tarnal red coated Mex- placed as sentries outside the walls. Moredren, when his country called-that gineral the commandant's residence; and, arriving pint, Cass needed him an go be would if the old there, I should be obliged to pass by a gate

"Not wishing to communicate my design Mrs. leftenant Libby that she last her bal- to any one, it was necessary to disguise myance an fell over a harrar that was behind self. As several rooms in the part of the Deacon Wiggin moved that we should all got to the meetin-us and held a public meetin, an when we'd all got in, deacon was appointed to assume the dress of a dots. (Washington begins to write dots.)—

That's it—O. K. Now I have got you; go leader, lighted by the same penurious candle, a pair of sabots (wooden shoes,) and atterher, ker-hoop-an kickin off little Ephe an building I occupied were undergoing repairs. onets. Of a sudden there was an explosion, ed cheerman and me clark. Arter a settin shaving off my moustaches, I took a plank you?

"On Monday morning I saw the workme enter, at half 8 o'clock. Charles took them some drink, in order that I should not meet call one of the gardiens (menkeys) whilst Dr I am all alone; the two boys are gone. Conneau convers d with the others. Nevertheless, I had scarcely got out of my room, before I was accosted by a workmon who took me for one of his comrabes, and at the of the keeper. Fortunately, I placed the plank I was carrying before my face, and Let any one reflect upon the fact, that all supposed adversary, but, deceived by the

to stop the veto, an got the stamp act!— ed very attentively at me. I placed the the bloody minded villins, says she; 'i could plank before my face, but they appeared to scratch their eyes out, i could. 'Hoo-roar!' be so curious that I thought I should never shouted the kurnel, when ant Judy sot down, escape them, until I heard them cry 'Oh!

rycanes in the house. The deacon hollered, gian pasport, but nowhere was I asked to green, by adding a little blue to the gold, or Unheeding this kind concern for his safety, frog .- but two old wimin field on in spite of "During my escape, Dr Conneau, always em to know how to shut it off.

At last Eusign Pike an file town clerk had give me time reach the frontier. It was ne-At last Eusign Pike an the town clerk had give me time reach the trouber. It was not to go up an gag them with their own shawls, cessary to be convinced that the Governand then the meetin went on.

We passed a good many resolutions—some regular clinchers, i tell you. I'll show you one of two jest for curiosity.

Resolved, That no people in the hull, gin Resolve

was originally a part of the union an ort to ship, and, if you are able, endeavor to be a very small family." "True, madam, de

Baltimore.-Yes. Wash.—Put me in connexion with Phila-

Balt. - Av. av. sir; wait a minute. (After

Wash.-How do you do, Philadelphia? Phila.-Pretty well. Is that you, Wash-

Wash .- Ay, ay; are you connected with New York? Phila.-Yes.

Wash .- Put me in connexion with New Phila .- Ay, ay; wait a minute. (After a pause.) Go ahead. Now for it.

Wash .- New York, how are you Philat-Hallo, New York, Washington is don't you answer?

New York .- I don't get anything from Wash .- I get that from New York. Phila.-New York, Washington says he gets that from you.

Balt .- How is it that Washington hears the Mexicoms have taken Orygon after a London, addressed the following letter to the from New York, and New York does not hear from Washington.

Piula .- There's where I am floored. Balt .-- What is the reason, Washington ?

from another. The little children cried and Leftenant Libby ren our to his house as mit to the ridicule that attaches to those who had a stiff evening's work; there have been hard as he could spring an got his great are arrested escaping under a disguise, and so many messages to night—one alone that sword that the Legislator gave him for his a failure I could not have endured. The clung to their mother-the lasses nestled close to their favorite swains-and the whole house shook with the agitation of its half de-Wash .- Wait a little. mented inhabitants. One bright thought Balt .- Go it ve cripples. Balt .- Mary Rogers are a case, so are Sally Thompson: Colonel Johnson.

Wash .- Bultimore, keep quiet. Phila- of his distressed parishioners.

Poila.-Ay, ay, sir; wait a little. York, ask Washington to write dots.

sage for his daughter?

Wash .-- Very well; no matter. Balt .- Good night ; I'm going.

Wash .- Good night all. N. York .- Good night.

then filter or strain off the liquor, which may be occasionally diluted with alcohol—if a color is required resembling dutch gold, or friends all fled and left him to his fate. copper, a large proportion of red saunders Among the company was a shrewd young most be applied to the work freely and flow- fiend to be nothing more than some domestic ing, and must not be brushed or rubbed while animal, but being a lover of fun, and willing it is drying. One or more coats of this var- to see a comedy, he kept his tho'ts to him nis' (or laquor as it is sometimes called) may self, and pretended to sympathise with othbe laid on the work as the color is required ers in their fears. He now thought it time "I passed through the town on foot, afte to be deeper or lighter. To make a rose to interfere, and snatching a pitch knot blazby means of prussian blue; and purple or don't proceeded from every part of the room. rose colored varnishes. These laquors are he rushed into the cellar, seized the ram by

Resolved. That no people in the hull, gineral, universal world are so free, vortoous an happpy as is the people of these suvrin states.

"Adieu, my dear M. Degeorge; although Resolved. That Texico, Kallefornio, Mattymoras, Korphus Christie and Madywosky

"Adieu, my dear M. Degeorge; although tymoras, Korphus Christie and Madywosky

"Adieu, my dear M. Degeorge; although to most unhappy. Re"Dar is, madam, cleven, myself, my husband, and nine level children." "O dear, we want than ever. useful to my kind Conneau. oldest is only nine; dey are all vary small, "LOUIS NAPOLEON." vary leetle children."

Soon after, the parents and their little ones, having put out the fire and fastened ed on the same c stination On the afternoon of the day following the a pause.) Go shead. You can now talk with Philadelphia.

On the afternoon of the day following the festival, which had been kept under the parent and invited by the parent an rental roof with many devout and jovial exercises, the family returned home, accompanied by some of their young cousins. Some of the youthful neighbors of both sexes were invited in, and a merry Thanksgiving carousal was in the full tide of successful operation, when one of the boys, who laid been sent into the cellar with a two wicked candle, which gave just light enough to make darkness visible, to draw cider, ran back into the room with eyes glaring wildly, uttering a half suffocated exclamation-"the devil's in the cellar !" "Poh !" said the father, "you have been frightened at you own shadow-give me the light !" On which he seized the candle, leaving the pewter candlestick clenched fast in the shaking hand of the boy, and boldly rushed to the cellar stairs; but ere he had descended half the steps, the large saucer eyes and enormous horns of the beast caused him to retreat as much terrified as his son-"sure enough the devil's in the cellar!" The utmost confusion and oproar seized the great Bible and attempted to read, but the findle spring the sacred page, three so teeble a light on the sacred page, and the book trembled so in the hand of the reader that he could not distinguish one word however, occurred-a messenger was desnatched to the minister, "to lay the D good nature, piety and credulity, than for tal-General Jackson are a hoss, so are ents or heroism, slipped the small Bible into his pocket, put on hand and surplice, that he Phila.-Who is that ? I will discuss that might appear as formidable as possible to his great adversary, and hastened to the relief delphia, tell New York to ask me to write On coming to the house, the reverend dots, (that is, to adjust his magnet.)

man was hailed as a deliverer, and implored New by at least a dozen voices at once, to "drive the devil away." But few moments were N. York .- Ay, ay. W. shington, write lost in asking questions, which none could he reached the foot of the stairs, the eyes of N. York .- Ay, ay.

Wash .- Did you get Prof. Morse's meshorns, magnified ten fold at least by the terrors of those that beheld them, removed all N. York .- Yes, from Philadelphia; but it doubt, if any had previously existed in his any of them on my passage. He was also to is too late to send it over the river to-night. mind, as to the infernal nature of the being with whom he had to centend. The divine instantly fell on his knees, and with uplified hands, began to pray in the most fervent manner. The ram not understanding the good man's motives, but supposing by the mo-And so ends this curious scene; not an tion of his hands that he was dating him to imaginary one, but one of actual occurrence. a butting contest, made a pass at his To MAKE A GOLD COLORED VARNISH FOR TIN.—To half a pint of alcohol, in a flask, add one ounce of gum shellar, half an ounce of tomeric, and one fourth of an ounce of red himself, the natural benevalence of his disposaunders; set the flask in a warm place, fie- sition burst out in the exciamation, Brethren, quently shaking it, for twelve hours or more; take care of yourselves, the devil has got - a. This exhortation was better obeyed than any

When this varnish is used, it farmer, who had from the first supposed the parson, "follow me." The borned devil was led in triumph, followed by the vanquished

The Church in Mexico ower $50,000,000.